

Tony: BDU & Friends Celebrate a Big Ass Night of Burlesque at Folly

<http://www.kccconfidential.com/?p=17510>

Voler – Thieves of Flight Aerial Ensemble offered a new high-flying direction for the BDU and the typical hoots and hollers gave way to some genuine amazement over the acrobatics performed with some rather reliable fabrics. It was definitely an enthralling spectacle of tangled mid-air movement but after the fourth set I think most members got the point - These ladies were fit and flexible and certainly worth checking out at a solo showcase.